

GARIFUNA COALITION USA, Inc.

The Garifuna Reunion

References – Referencias

On March 14, 1795: Paramount Chief of the Black Caribs, Joseph Chatoyer, died in battle.

El 14 de marzo de 1795: El Jefe supremo de los Negros Caribes, José Chatuye , muere en batalla.

On March 11, 1797, 2080 men, women, and children were shipped away from their homeland to Roatan, Honduras. This was, perhaps, the gloomiest day in the life of the Garifuna people.

El 11 de marzo de 1797, 2080 hombres, mujeres, y niños fueron exiliados lejos de su patria a Roatan, Honduras. Éste fue, quizás, el día más melancólico de la vida del pueblo Garifuna.

Important Dates in the Garifuna History By Clifford J. Palacio
<http://www.seinebight.com/cjp/caribdates.htm>

Joseph Chatoyer

<http://gov.vc/Govt/Government/Executive/Ministries/Tourism&Culture/Culture/Culture.asp?z=230&a=115>
1

St Vincent History – Historia de San Vicente

http://www.svgtourism.com/channels/1.asp?id=60&prev_place=&cps=0&cpp=1

Historic homecoming in St Vincent

<http://www.caribbeannetnews.com/2005/03/15/homecoming.shtml>

Joseph Chatoyer

<http://www.seinebight.com/cjp/chatoyer.htm>

Joseph Chatoyer - From Wikipedia, the free encyclopedia

http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Joseph_Chatoyer

Joseph Chatoyer

Garifuna Pride - Our Voice - Our Vision

NYS Attorney General Charities Bureau Reg. No: 40-78-09

www.garifunacoalition.org

<http://www.myspace.com/garifunacoalition>